

Charmin's Garden ADVENTURE

Tim Cocklin

Morning sunlight danced across the leaves at Willow & Sprout Nursery.

Charmin the little multi-poo trotted through the gate, her pink bow bouncing and her nose wiggling with excitement.

Charmin sniffed every flower she could find — roses, tulips, and tiny baby succulents. When one wobbled as she touched it, her eyes grew wide.

“Did you just wiggle at me?” she seemed to say.

A chorus of giggles filled the air.

“Look! A puppy!” cried the children.

Charmin’s tail wagged — so many new friends!

She remembered her manners, sat down, and waited patiently.

One by one, the children reached out.

Soft hands brushed her fur — black as licorice, white as snow.

“She’s so fluffy!” “She smells like flowers!”

Charmin closed her eyes and sighed a happy “woof.”

A sudden gust of wind whooshed through the garden!
Seeds flew everywhere — like tiny sparkles in the air.

“Oh no!” shouted the teacher.

But Charmin darted into action!

Through puddles she dashed,
splish-splash!

Her tiny paws spread water over the scattered seeds.

When she sat down, muddy but proud, the children cheered — and a soft rainbow appeared above them.

The rain stopped. The air smelled sweet and new.

The children knelt beside Charmin and hugged her.
“You saved our seeds!”

Charmin wagged her tail, her fur speckled with petals and raindrops.

As the day ended, Charmin sat
by the garden bed.

A tiny green sprout peeked
from the soil.

She gave it a gentle sniff — her job was done.

Her owner, Tim, sat beside her.

“Good job, Charmin,” he whispered, giving her a soft pat.

Charmin’s heart felt as warm
as the afternoon sun.

The next day, a new sign stood by the flowers:

“Charmin’s Garden Helpers — Growing Smiles One Flower at a Time.”

Charmin tilted her head proudly.

Every day the children anxiously waited for Charmin to come and help.

...and when she showed up,
they all came and welcomed
her.

Everyone took turns petting and hugging her.

This book is dedicated to Genie Hocking Nickerson.
Who gave us the best gift possible...Charmin

Charmin will return in other exciting adventures with her other friends: Cooper - the beagle, Ollie the boxer, Gimley the mixer and Shep - the golden doddle

Watch for other adventures listed on her facebook account:
Charmin's Pet Adventures

Watch for other Charmin Adventures